Derry Zachery of Sheridan is the 1984 winner of the coveted Phil N. Eskew Award for Mental Attitude for Class A.

The award was presented by James H. Wahl of the IHSAA Executive Committee following the 12th annual Class A championship football game between Sheridan and North Judson in the Hoosier Dome, the first high school title game ever in the 61,000 seat stadium.

Zachery becomes the 12th player and second Blackhawk to receive the award, named after Eskew, IHSAA Commissioner for 14 years before he retired in 1975.

Jeff Greer received the award in 1980 after leading Sheridan to the state Class A championship.

The award is presented to an outstanding senior in the championship game for mental attitude, scholarship, leadership and athletic ability in football.

Zachery, an honor student who ranks 12th of 76 in the senior class, is a two-year starter at quarterback and defensive back. The 5-8, 140 pounder, who also competes in basketball and track, is an all-Rangeline Conference quarterback.

He is vice-president of the schools chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Micheal Zachery of 402 E. Fourth Street, Sheridan.

POST-GAME QUOTES

SHERIDAN HIGH SCHOOLVS. NORTH JUDSON HIGH SCHOOL NOVEMBER 23, 1984 INDPLS/HOOSIER DOME

Visitor Home Date Site

NORTH JUDSON COACH: RUSS RADTKE

- . They were able to do a better job on the line of scrimmage than we were.
- . We threw the ball kink more than we wanted to.
- . Their defensive front did a tremendous job.
- . We had only 5 seniors and they came along farther than any group of seniors in the state.
- . Goal line stands were not rare to us. It's just that we gave up the big pass which we hadn't done. We've had 27 pass interceptions this year.
- . They're #1. They're a great ballteam, but we'll take #2.

SHERIDAN COACH: LARRY WRIGHT

- . Their goal line stands gave them too much penetration and they stopped us.
- . At halftime, we put the pressure on our offensive line. We would win it or lose it with their play in the second half.
- . We felt they were keying on Purkey in the first half, in the second half, we took that away from them by making adjustments.
- . Zachery, the qb, he's done the job for us for two years and the touchdown pass to Ayers was called by Zachery.
- . On playing at the Hoosier Dome: It was great, we made a day of it, it was this team's goal to be here and they had put that pressure on themselves all year long.
- . We started the same kids in all 14 games, playing 9 individuals both ways and we were lucky, with no injuries, to get us through to the championship.
