Quotes from Dick Dullaghan, Ben Davis coach:

It was a tremendous football game -- just what we thought it would be in terms of athletic ability. They had great speed and a bend but don't break defense. We've been a big play team all year and we just weren't able to break enough big plays.

We have no excuses. We caused ourselves to be down 14-0. But I never doubted we'd come back. I credit their coaching staff for coming up with some new wrinkles. Their 3 receiver formation and fullback up the middle pass were new.

We were trying to go for the overtime there at the end.

Will Jones (BEN DAVIS), Except for the big plays I think essentially it was an even game. It was 22 men on the field fighting it out. They had great speed and were coached well. They were great players and hit well.

Quotes from Russ Isaacs, FW Snider coach:

I thought we set a tone for the game with our first touchdown drive. We didn't come down here to be in awe of Ben Davis. I bet nobody in the state of Indiana, outside of Fort Wayne, gave us a chance to win this game. But, hey, their kids are just like our kids.

That (winning field goal) kick will make his (Seth (Ziegel) life. You talk about a pressure situation to get into. Seth was put in one. I was trying to get him to laugh, joke, wave to his mother-- anything to get him relaxed.

What people sometimes lose sight of is these are kids, these are not professional athletes. These are kids who play for the sheer joy of playing.

Quotes from Seth Ziegel, FW Snider kicker:

It (kicking the winning field goal) feels great. During the timeouts Coach Isaacs was talking about keeping my head down, getting my foot planted, making good contact, and having a good follow through.

I don't really know what I was feeling as I watched it go through. I was just there. I guess I was just kind of numb.
