EAST CENTRAL-DEKALB QUOTES

ROD BALLART, EAST CENTRAL COACH

"Our two-deep zone defense took them out of their phase of the game, the pass. Our phase, the running game, worked. By throwing early we backed them off on defense from the line of scrimmage."

"They were not 2-platooning and we were. We like to 2-platoon because we feel that will win big ballgames."

"They (East Central) wanted the blue rings this year (after finishing as the 1993 runnerup). They didn't want to think about last year's game and they were focused on this year. This group of seniors has been successful at every level since the seventh grade. As a group they were unscored upon for their first three years (seventh through ninth grade)."

"We don't play defense like a lot of teams. We have lineman keys and not necessarily follow the football."

JOSH MARTINI, EAST CENTRAL RUNNING BACK

(On the difference between this year and last year at the Dome): "This was a whole new year. Last year, we were on a mission to get there. This year, we were on a mission to win it."

RON KOCK, DEKALB COACH

"East Central earned the championship. We didn't play our best game. But we had a great season."

"We couldn't create the big play, but East Central's defense had something to do with that. We needed to have a big play; we needed to change the momentum of the game. But we were not able to."

"Every team designs their defense to stop Brad (Weber). Their speed and quickness on defense stopped our plays from being big plays that were big plays earlier in the year."

(On Weber being named the Eskew Award winner): "He's an outstanding leader, but we have a lot of leaders. Brad and Adam (Hissong, the other co-captain) lead by example."

BRAD WEBER, DEKALB QUARTERBACK AND ESKEW AWARD WINNER

"The offense today just didn't click. Everyone was out to win; we just didn't execute. They shut us down and we shut ourselves down at times. Being the mental attitude award winner is nice right now, and I'll probably think more of it in January. But right now, I'm just thinking about the game and how we came up short. . . . "I didn't think there was a ballclub with our offense that could get shut out." ↑

DeKalb's Brad Weber

Named Eskew Award Winner For Class 4A

Brad Weber, who quarterbacked DeKalb to a 13-1 season and the runnerup finish in the Class 4A state tournament, today was named winner of the Phil N. Eskew Award for Mental Attitude in 4A football by the IHSAA Executive Committee.

The son of Jim and Josie Weber, Brad ranks sixth in DeKalb's senior class of 276 students. He is a member of the National Honor Society, German Club, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and vice president of the Student Council.

Weber is a four-year starter for the DeKalb football team on defense and a three-year starter at quarterback. He is a three-time All-Northeast Hoosier Conference selection. Weber was named to the Bloomington Herald-Times all-state team this year, and is being recruited by a number of Division I colleges. DeKalb was 31-5 with him at quarterback.

Also outstanding in baseball, Weber has been an all-conference selection the last three years. He was a member of Junior Olympics team in 1993 and 1994, with the 1994 team winning the gold medal.

Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate sponsor of all IHSAA tournaments, will award a $1,000 scholarship in Weber's name to DeKalb High School.

Weber finished 11 of 31 for 67 yards against East Central, bringing his season totals to 164 of 333 for 2,505 with 31 touchdowns. The yardage total ranks third in the state only to Martinsville junior Earl Haniford, who threw for 3,261, and Evansville Mater Dei junior Chris Koester, who finished with 2,710.
