

2011 IOA Wrestling Officials Class

Become an IHSAA Licensed wrestling official

Indiana Officials Association (IOA) member Jeff McClane, with the permission of the IOA and the Indiana High School Athletic Association (IHSAA), will be conducting a wrestling officials' class. (Note: This class is not required to become licensed by IHSAA to officiate wrestling.)

This class helps prepares individuals who desire to take the National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS) examination to become a licensed IHSAA Wrestling Official. Not only will the letter but the spirit of the NFHS Wrestling Rules will be taught/discussed.

Participation in this class, where the NFHS wrestling rules will be discussed in detail, will greatly enhance one's chances in passing the wrestling official's exam.

Classes will be held in a classroom off of the west gym at Arsenal Technical High School, 1500 E. Michigan St, Indianapolis, starting Monday, September 12, 2011, for five (5) consecutive weeks from 6:00 to 8:00 PM.

Per the NFHS, there will no longer be a paper exams; all exams will be administered online.

➤ Exam window: Monday, Oct 10 – Nov 14. (on www.arbitersports.com)

There will be opportunities for students to attend clinics, officiate Junior Varsity and Middle School meets as well as participating in a Mentoring Program, hosted by the IOA, will be announced during the class sessions.
