Dr. Paul Kaiser appointed to IHSAA Foundation Board

Westfield Washington Schools Superintendent Dr. Paul Kaiser has been appointed to a 3-year term to serve on the Board of Directors of the IHSAA Foundation. Kaiser will replace Metropolitan School District of Washington Township (North Central) Superintendent Nikki Woodson as the IHSAA District 2 Superintendent Representative.

Dr. Kaiser is in his first year at Westfield having previously served as superintendent of Beech Grove City Schools for 13 years. He has more than 40 years of experience in education. His career began as a teacher at Kokomo Haworth High School, moving on to an assistant principal position at Eastern High School in Greentown, Indiana, principal at Decatur Central High School, assistant superintendent at Noblesville Schools, and then as superintendent of Monroe-Gregg Schools and Beech Grove City Schools.

Dr. Kaiser is piloting a district with more than 8,400 students, more than 600 teachers and nearly 240 support staff. He holds a doctorate in Educational Leadership from Indiana State University. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Ball State University, in addition to his Administration and Supervision, and Educational Specialist in Administration certifications.

Kaiser joins Wayne Barker of the School City of Mishawaka, Tina Bennett from Clarksville Community Schools and Dr. Nikki Woodson at the Metropolitan School District of Washington Township (North Central High School) as the other member-school superintendents on the IHSAA Foundation Board.
