IHSAA Track, Softball State Finals venues to change

The IHSAA Track & Field and Softball State Finals will be contested at different venues this June.

The Boys, Girls and Unified Track & Field State Finals had been planned for June 4-5 at Indiana University's Robert C. Haugh Track and Field Complex in Bloomington while the Softball State Finals had been scheduled for June 11-12 at Purdue University's Bittinger Stadium in West Lafayette.

Commissioner Paul Neidig received word this week from administrators at both universities that neither will be able to host the IHSAA events with spectators this year.

The IHSAA understands and respects both universities' decision and will begin looking for alternative host sites immediately. The Association looks forward to returning to those venues in the future.
