L. Consideration for Approval - Annual Budget

Commissioner Paul Neidig discussed the budget for the 2025-2026 fiscal year, noting a 6.52% decrease in total net revenue, with expenses increasing by a little more than 5%. He highlighted the need for more efficient tournament management. Health insurance continues to go up in price for the staff. It is hoped that some changes made with help reduce that going forward. With added services to the membership this last year, technology expenses also saw an increase.

Motion:

Motion moved by Jim Brown and motion seconded by Paul Voigt. Approved 18-0.

II. REPORTS

A. Baseball Pilot Program

Assistant Commissioner Robert Faulkens explained that the baseball pilot program between Arsenal Tech and University was successful, increasing participation from 8 to 21 players at Tech over two years. The IHSAA plans to extend this program to four additional schools.

B. Sponsorships

Assistant Commissioner Chris Kaufman updated the Executive Committee on sponsorships including a new relationship with American Dairy Association which announced via social media last week.

C. Explanation and Collection of Conflicts of Interest Statements

Commissioner Paul Neidig and General Counsel Katie Williams-Briles presented a Conflict-of-Interest Statement to be signed by the IHSAA Executive Committee members.

J. Officials

Assistant Commissioner Brian Lewis provided the numbers of licensed officials by sport for 2025-26. There are 5,311 licensed individuals which is fairly typical for this time of year though the numbers in football, volleyball and soccer were each down from previous years. Girls Lacrosse has also been added for the first time.

Lewis also shared a list provided by RefReps that shows 102 member schools using Officiating 101 as part of their curriculum this semester. This course offering is helping to license younger individuals in the officiating ranks.

K. Sportsmanship

Assistant Commissioner Jane Schott presented a list of the 21 schools that earned a sportsmanship banner for the 2024-25 school year. Those schools (listed alphabetically) are:

Brebeuf Jesuit, Center Grove, Central Noble, Eastern Greene, Edgewood, Elkhart, Fountain Central, Frankton, Guerin Catholic, Hammond Bishop Noll, Harrison (West Lafayette), Herron, Highland, Madison Consolidated, Mooresville, North Judson-San Pierre, Perry Meridian, Sheridan, Speedway, Terre Haute North Vigo, Washington Township.

Those banners will be presented at the upcoming Fall Principals Meetings.

L. Technology

Director of Technology Luke Morehead provided committee members an overview of improvements to the tournament management capabilities of the myIHSAA portal for the 2025-26 season. The updates will identify advancing teams and provide benchmarks for event finances.

M. Legal

General Counsel Katie Williams-Briles updated the Executive Committee on the status of pending litigation against the Association and recent decisions from the Case Review Panel.

N. Distinguished Media Service Award

Sports Information Director Jason Wille reported on this year's Distinguished Media Service Awards. One individual in each of the three districts will be selected for this honor and recognized later this school year for their contributions to high school athletics.
