II. REPORTS

A. Certify the 2025 Board of Directors Election Results

In most years, the results of the annual Board of Directors election are part of this meeting's agenda. But because today's meeting falls on the final day of this year's election, Commissioner Paul Neidig will inform all candidates of the results as soon as they are known this week. Certification of the results will be part of next month's meeting agenda set for Thursday, January 15, 2026.

B. Reflections on the Small School Focus Group Meeting

Commissioner Paul Neidig recapped the meeting he and the assistant commissioners hosted on Wednesday, Nov. 19 at the IHSAA.

The meeting gave voice to administrators representing many 1A and 2A schools to share their concerns and viewpoints with regard to high school athletics. Topics covered were summer participation, review of school classification criteria, transition between athletic season (notably the five-practice rule), and advocacy for small school athletic directors.

Neidig anticipates another meeting to be scheduled again in the spring.

C. Appoint Screening Committee for C. Eugene Cato Memorial Scholarship Applications

Foundation President Chris Kaufman asked for two volunteers from each legislative district to serve on this year's screening committee. Volunteers will review and select the recipients from districts other than their own. Those serving are:

District 1 – Tom Finicle, Paul Voigt
District 2 – Jim Brown, Kyle Duncan
District 3 – Chad Gilbert, Kris Painter

D. Girls Flag Football

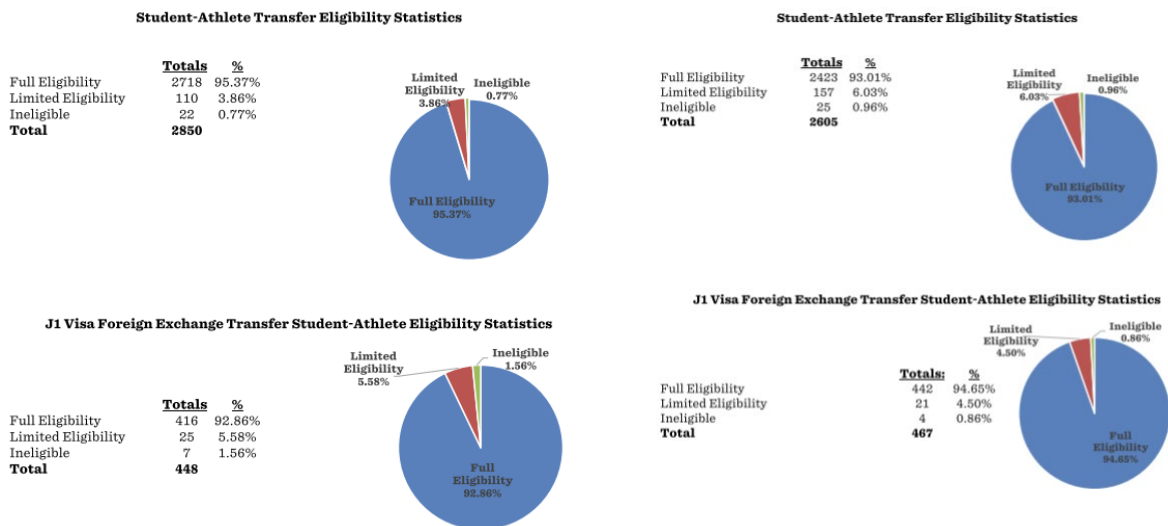

Commissioner Paul Neidig and Assistant Commissioners Robert Faulkens and Chris Kaufman were invited to meet with Indianapolis Colts owner Kalen Jackson and Colts Chief Operating Officer Pete Ward to review the sport of Girls Flag Football earlier this month. Jackson is part of the NFL's Steering Committee which is invested in creating opportunities for female athletes to play the sport in all 50 states.

Seventy-eight (78) teams participated in this fall's state tournament which was administered by the Girls Flag Football Coaches Association in conjunction with the Indianapolis Colts. At this point, 108 teams have committed for next fall's tournament. All are hopeful that more schools from urban areas will field teams.

The girls coaches association will still administer next year's tournament but Neidig says the IHSAA will become more directly involved with Faulkens administering the sport and Assistant Commissioner Brian Lewis will oversee the flag football officials.

E. Transfers

Assistant Commissioner Brian Lewis reported on the number of transfers (chart listed next page) that have been ruled upon for the period of June 1, 2025 and December 2, 2025 (left) and, for comparison, the numbers from the same period a year ago (right).

F. Officials Update

Assistant Commissioner Brian Lewis shared the updated 10-year look at licensed officials by sport. Among fall sports, the numbers of soccer officials and volleyball officials ended down from a year ago, while football remained steady.

Lewis also shared the latest survey data from the Officials' Host School Contest Experience.

G. Sportsmanship

Assistant Commissioner Jane Schott shared that 1,127 Exemplary Sportsmanship Reports have been received so far this year with 964 of those coming from licensed officials.

She has received 428 reports of ejections during fall sports. 52% of those have occurred in boys soccer, 30% in football, and 10% in girls soccer. The remaining fall sports combined for 8%.

The All-Sportsmanship teams for fall sports will be announced in the coming days.

H. Technology

Director of Technology Luke Morehead demonstrated an improved process for tracking and onboarding prospective officials in the myIHSAA portal. Director Morehead also shared design updates planned for myIHSAA and IHSAA.org as well as a recently-implemented statewide online search tool for regular season contest schedules.

Commissioner Paul Neidig added that we're seeing a lot of growth with our Instagram and Tik Tok social media accounts. He warned of the numerous fake accounts on social media that continue to disguise themselves using the IHSAA logo, similar handle names to our own, and pushing spam links. We continue to report these accounts to platform administrators.

Neidig also expressed concern with the NFHS Network airing advertisements for watching IHSAA games on their network and using the IHSAA logo without permission.

He also reported that MaxPreps, our statistics and bracketing partners, have been purchased by PlayOn which is affiliated with the NFHS.

I. Legal

Attorney Katie Williams-Briles updated the Executive Committee on the status of pending litigation against the Association and recent Case Review Panel rulings.

Williams-Briles also updated the group on NIL legislation in other states and how its affecting state associations.
