DIGITAL TICKETS ONLY

$15 per person. All tickets are reserved seating for one session only (two games - morning session or evening session). All tickets are digital only through your mobile phone and may be purchased via Ticketmaster.com (service fees apply). Purchased tickets will be sent as mobile tickets to the purchaser's smart phone and that verification should be shown at the admission gate. Participating schools will also have digital tickets to sell in their own sections during the week of the state finals.

PARKING

There are multiple parking options throughout the downtown area that are within walking distance of the Fieldhouse. The Virginia Avenue Garage, which charges a fee and is located directly to the east of the venue, connects to the Fieldhouse from the third floor of the garage via a walkway over Delaware Street. The entrance to the Virginia Avenue Garage is located off of Maryland Street.

GATES OPEN

Gainbridge Fieldhouse will open its gates to fans beginning one hour prior to the start of each session -- 9:30 am ET and 5 pm ET. The venue will be cleared between the Class 2A and 3A games.

TELEVISION & WEBCAST

All four state championship games will air live on Bally Sports Indiana (BSIN) or Bally Sports Indiana Extra, an alternate channel due to overlap with the Indiana Pacers broadcast. For viewers outside of the BSIN coverage area, a live stream will be available at IHSAAtv.org. For those within the BSIN coverage area, the stream will be available only on delayed basis following the conclusion of the telecast. Also, South Bend's WHME Channel 46 will carry Saturday's games for viewers in the Michiana area.

INTRODUCING THE IHSAA RAY CROWE EXCELLENCE IN LEADERSHIP AWARD

To be presented annually for exemplifying sportsmanship, ethical conduct and moral character

In recognition of Ray Crowe's profound life and legacy in Indiana, the IHSAA is proud to announce the formation of the IHSAA Ray Crowe Excellence in Leadership Award in his honor.

The award, to be presented annually at the boys basketball state finals, will recognize individuals who carry on Ray Crowe's legacy, exemplifying the highest standards of sportsmanship, ethical conduct, and moral character. Candidates will be considered on the merits of their achievements as a high school leader (coach, athletic administrator, etc.), civic contributions, and community impact, including significant and/or long-term contributions to the interscholastic athletic community. This award will acknowledge the accomplishments and meaningful contributions of individuals who are worthy of statewide recognition as examples for others to emulate.

Born and raised on a farm near Franklin, Indiana, in 1915, Ray Crowe was one of 10 children. A standout student-athlete at Whiteland High School, he was a four-year letterman in basketball (twice the leading scorer and team captain), a three-year letterman in baseball, and the only Black player on both teams.

After high school, Crowe attended Indiana Central College (now University of Indianapolis) where he earned a degree in education and lettered in basketball, track and baseball. He graduated in 1939 and worked at International Harvester before starting his career as an educator and coach at Indianapolis Public School 17.

Crowe became an assistant basketball coach at Crispus Attucks High School in 1948 and was appointed head basketball coach in 1950.

During his seven-year tenure as head coach, Crowe's teams won the Indiana state basketball championship two consecutive years (1955 and 1956)—becoming the first all-Black school to win a state championship in the country, the first Indianapolis team to win the state title, and Indiana's first undefeated state champions in 1956. Crowe was also the first Black coach to win a state title.

His teams made tournament appearances every year he coached: the State Finals in 1951, Sectionals in 1952, Semi-States in 1953 and 1954, and State Finals (runners-up) in 1957. His record as head coach was 179-20.

While the team's success brought great fanfare, it did not shield them from the racism and discrimination of the time. Despite facing racial tensions and hostile playing conditions, Crowe always emphasized the importance of good sportsmanship and taught his players to remain calm, take the high road, and overcome adversity through discipline and achievement.

Crowe coached numerous Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame inductees, including Oscar Robertson, and was inducted himself in 1968. Following the 1957 season, Crowe served as the school's athletic director for 10 years, during which the school won its third state championship in 1959.

Crowe's example of servant leadership continued in his roles in public service, including as an Indiana State Representative, House Education Committee Chair, Indianapolis City-County Councilman, Indianapolis Department of Parks and Recreation Director, and Indiana Department of Public Instruction Assistant Director.

Crowe died in 2003 at the age of 88, survived by his former wife, four children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Beyond his many historic accomplishments, Crowe's greatest legacy is the character he displayed as a leader, role model and man of integrity on and off the court. Even in the face of incredible adversity, he embodied the greatest lessons of education-based athletics, from discipline, respect and responsibility to empathy, perseverance and resilience. And he went above and beyond to instill these lessons into his players, no matter the odds stacked against them.

That's why he will always be a trailblazer ... an icon ... and an Indiana basketball legend.

MILDRED BALL TO BE HONORED WITH RICHARD G. LUGAR AWARD

The Indiana High School Athletic Association is pleased to announce that Mildred Morgan Ball is this year's recipient of the Richard G. Lugar Award for Distinguished Service.

This award, named after the late Senator Lugar, began in 2017 and is awarded annually to individuals who have given a lifetime of distinguished service to high school education and interscholastic athletics in the state of Indiana.

Ball, who will be recognized at halftime of Saturday's Class 4A state championship game, has been a trail blazer in women's athletics at the local, state, and national levels. Throughout her career, she has worked to ensure excellence and equity for girls and women in athletics, academic and health-related activities.

When Title IX was passed 50 years ago, it opened doors for women like Mildred Ball, the first woman of color hired by the IHSAA and the second in the United States hired by a state high school athletic association. Her 20 years as assistant commissioner opened doors for generations of female athletes.

Mildred was an assistant commissioner to the IHSAA from 1977-97. In addition, Ball was responsible for the licensing and training of contest officials. She worked with rules committees at the National Federation of State High School Associations and served on the association's Equity Committee.

Ball is a 1953 graduate of Gary Roosevelt High School where she was a varsity cheerleader and president of the girl's athletic association. She earned degrees from Indiana and Purdue universities and taught for 17-years at Washington High School in East Chicago.

Ball's persistent work has been recognized by awards given to her by various organizations, including the National Federation of State High School Associations, the Indiana Association of Athletic Officials, the National Coalition of 100 Black Women, the Benjamin Hooks Award from the NAACP, and she is a Sagamore of the Wabash recipient. She was inducted into the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame in 1998. The Indiana Basketball Coaches Association has presented an award to an outstanding basketball official in Mildred Ball's name since 1997.

The Indiana University School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation recognized her efforts with the John Endwright Distinguished Alumni Service Award in 1996 and IU honored her with the Distinguished Alumni Service Award in 2005.

On behalf of all 407 IHSAA member schools across the state of Indiana, thank you Mildred Ball for a lifetime of exemplary and distinguished service to interscholastic athletics in our state.

TERRE HAUTE'S MARK HOPPER TO BE HONORED AS BASKETBALL'S OUTSTANDING OFFICIAL FOR 2022

Each year, the Indiana High School Athletic Association, in cooperation with the National Federation of Interscholastic Officials Association, recognizes and honors an outstanding official in each sport during the school year. Officials selected for this distinction have gone above and beyond to serve their association, community, and the IHSAA. Each have shown exceptional qualities of leadership, dedication, and loyalty to their sport, our student-athletes, and their fellow officials.

Mark Hopper of Terre Haute is the recipient of the 2022 IHSAA Outstanding Official Award for Boys Basketball. Mark has been a licensed IHSAA official for the past 27 years and is currently a member of the Fall Creek Officials Association and Western Officials Association. Mark was previously a member of the Wabash Valley Officials Association where he had served as basketball and football chairman for the past 10 years. Mark is licensed in the sports of baseball, basketball, and football.

During his career officiating boys' basketball, he has been assigned 20 sectionals, 17 regionals, nine semi-states, and four state finals (2010, 2013, 2016, 2021). Mark has also officiated two football state finals, in 2014 and 2018, and five girls basketball state finals (2008, 2011, 2014, 2017, 2021). He currently serves as an IHSAA Certification Clinician for basketball (2010-present), and football (2012-present). When he is not serving high school student-athletes, he is volunteering his time officiating baseball, football, and basketball youth leagues in his community. Mark also takes time to mentor his fellow high school and youth league officials.

A 1984 graduate of Terre Haute North High School, Mark works as a Road Supervisor for Vigo County Highway. He has cherished his time as an official, thankful for the relationships that have developed over the years with his fellow officials, coaches, athletic directors, and student-athletes. Mark currently resides with his wife Darla and has five children.

Mark was selected for this honor by a committee representing the officials associations. In Indiana, there are 24 associations made up of more than 7,000 men and women who assist in providing wholesome, worthwhile, and healthy activities for the student-athletes in our state. Statewide, there are more than 8,000 officials licensed by the IHSAA in 11 sports.
