CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF TITLE IX

"No person in the United States shall on the basis of sex be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any education programs or activity receiving federal financial assistance."

Those words, the preamble to Title IX, signed into law on June 23, 1972 by President Richard M. Nixon, changed the athletics landscape in public schools across the country.

With it, the Indiana High School Athletic Association, under Commissioner Phil Eskew and the Association's first Director of Girls Athletics Pat Roy, initiated seven state tournaments for girls in various sports over the next four years. The first of which was volleyball.

The IHSAA is proud to join the National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS) and other state associations across the country in celebrating the inspirational individuals and landmark moments in the history of Title IX, and continuing to grow the educational and competitive opportunities for the future.

As part of this milestone celebration, the Indiana High School Athletic Association is sending patches (like this one shown) to its member schools to be affixed to team uniforms for the remainder of the 2021-22 school year.

Something Interesting About You Personally or Professionally That People Might Not Know:
 First played volleyball at age 17 for Munciana Club when my older sister Kim (18) told me that Munciana was starting a boy's program. After high school attended Ball State and tried out for the Men's Volleyball Team, but didn't make it, but instead got asked (by Shondell family) if I was interested in coaching. So that summer I started coaching volleyball for Munciana, back in 1995, and that is where I got my first experience in coaching and found my love of the game.

Something Interesting About You Personally or Professionally That People Might Not Know:
Something interesting about myself that people might not know is that my mom and aunt played at Muncie Northside(when it was a high school) and won volleyball state championships there. I grew up in Muncie, playing at Munciana beginning with Dr. Don when I was 8 years old. My grandpa taught at Ball State and coached at Muncie Burris. I got into coaching being fascinated by watching some of the greats such as Wes Lyon, Steve Shondell and Jean Kesterson teach while I was playing for them.
