HONORING INDIANA'S
Champions of Education presented by
 Ivy Tech Community College

As an organization that emphasizes keeping education at the forefront of high school athletics, the Indiana High School Athletic Association is proud to shine a light on student-centered educators.

Originating in 2022, the IHSAA Champions of Education Award celebrates the noble professions of teachers, coaches, and administrators who go above and beyond to challenge their high school students to become the best versions of themselves.

At this weekend's state finals, the IHSAA will honor an educator from each participating school who was selected by their own school colleagues for their commitment to student success.

Jeffersonville's Jeff Wigginton and Fishers' Greg Miller (both holding plaques) were recognized at last year's Class 4A State Championship with the IHSAA's Champions of Education Awards presented by Ivy Tech Community College.

Opened in 1999, Gainbridge Fieldhouse is the home of the NBA's Indiana Pacers and WNBA's Indiana Fever.

- Unranked New Haven making school's first state championship game appearance. One of three schools doing so this weekend (Crown Point, Mt. Vernon).
- This is the first New Haven team to play in a state championship contest. Girls wrestling team, including three-time champion Julianna Ocampo, won the 2024 state title while the sport was still under state coaches association sponsorship. And the boys cross country team finished state runner-up in 1961.
- New Haven dropped four of its last seven regular season games but have rebounded nicely with wins over two ranked opponents this tournament - beat #9 West Lafayette for its first regional championship and rallied past #6 Columbia City in the final seconds for its first semi-state crown.
- On Saturday night, Tarvar Baskerville, the team's leading scorer dropped in the go-ahead bucket on a winding layup with 1.9 seconds left against conference rival Columbia City and added two free throws to put the game out of reach.
- Six of the team's seven defeats were to 4A teams.
- Northeast 8 Conference champions with a 6-1 record.
